ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

New Contract Signed with Largest Client

Threat Protect Australia Limited ('Threat Protect' or the 'Company') (ASX: TPS) is pleased to announce the signing of a new contract ('Contract') with the Company's largest client. The Company has provided integrated security solutions to this client including monitoring and security personnel since 2010

The term of the Contract is for two years as a lump sum price for the services over that period of approximately $2.5M. The contract has an additional 2 option periods of 1 year per option period. The Contract is adjusted for CPI annually. On exercise of the options the Contract is an effective 4 year period.

"Signing this new Contract reflects the confidence the client maintains in the quality of service provided by the company and our integrated security offering", says Demetrios Pynes, MD. "This delivers solid and significant revenue and, importantly, earnings to the Company for the ensuing years. We expect the relationship to continue beyond this option period."
